Welcome to Congregation Beth Shalom!

We seek to enrich the lives of our congregation through ever-evolving ideals of observance, life-long learning, and acts of kindness from this generation to the next. We are committed to meeting the spiritual, educational and social needs of our members through the practice of Conservative Judaism in an all-inclusive manner. We seek to encourage involvement and create a sense of belonging by serving our community, the Jewish people, and the State of Israel.

We hope you enjoy worshiping with us. Following services, please join us for kiddush luncheon and introduce yourself so we may personally greet you.

Senior Rabbi David Chapman • Senior Cantor Steven Stoehr • Assistant Rabbi Jacki Honig
Sue Lampert, President • Rabbi Emeritus Carl Wolkin z'l

If you are interested in being a part of our community, please contact Michael Garlin, Executive Director.

This Week's Parashah

God instructs Moses to accept gifts from the Israelites. These are to construct a sanctuary for God. Acceptable gifts include precious metals and stones, tanned skins, blue, purple, and crimson yarns and linen, and special oils and spices. God shows Moses the design for the Tabernacle and its contents: an Ark of acacia wood, overlaid both inside and out with gold. The Ark is to be fitted with gold rings and gold-covered poles to make it portable. The tablets of the law are to be kept inside. Two gold cherubim are to be placed facing each other over the cover of the Ark. The Ark is to be housed in the innermost chamber of the Tabernacle, called the Holy of Holies. God describes the construction of the Tabernacle to Moses in great detail. The entire structure is to be portable, with a wooden framework and walls of richly colored fabric. Next to the Holy of Holies is to be a room called the Holy place, with a table overlaid in gold with the bread of display (showbread) set on it and the seven-branched Menorah also made of gold. In the Tabernacle court, an altar is to be constructed with copper-covered horns at each corner. The courtyard itself is to be 100 cubits long by 50 cubits wide, surrounded by walls of acacia wood covered in gold and overlaid with fabric and animal hides. During the forty years of wandering in the desert, this Mishkan/tabernacle was the site at which God spoke to Moses.

Today's Haftarah

King David's strong desire was to build a Temple for God. Although he would not live to see his dream realized, his son Solomon made the task a high priority during his reign. This week's Haftarah contains many of the details related to building the Temple. About 30,000 workers were needed to complete the task and the building may have taken more than twenty years. The Temple proper was a rectangular hall, 60 by 20 by 30 cubits. Whereas this week's Torah portion describes the construction of the Mishkan (Tabernacle) in the wilderness, the narrative of today's haftarah parallels that of the Torah portion, by describing the building of Solomon's Temple.
