

There's more to Pesach than Seder and the pizza after Pesach has ended!
Join us on Wednesday, April 3, 2019
7 PM

Everything you wanted to know about prepping for Pesach and celebrating the end of Pesach with a Middle Eastern Mimouna.

Rabbi Aaron Melman will teach us the proper way to prepare our kitchen prior to Pesach.

We will celebrate with delicious Pesach cocktails and Mimouna treats.

Members $10 Non-members $15
by March 20th

CBS members can register through MyCBS

Members $12 Non-members $17
Cost as of March 21st

Contact Laurie B Davis lbd715@gmail.com or Suzy Hakimian
suzy.hakimian@schechter.org

What is a Middle Eastern Mimouna, you ask? Unbeknown to many Americans, however, Moroccan Jews have long marked the end of Pesach with a more established ritual, a raucous tradition known as Mimouna. Soon after sunset on the last night of the holiday, they indulge in the first leavened food since Pesach began.

CBS Sisterhood Pesach Event-Wednesday, April 3, 2019

If paying by check, payable to CBS Sisterhood or register at MyCBS. To avoid price increase, register by March 20th.

Name _____ Email _____ $ _____