RABBI MELMAN'S MINUTES

Rabbi Melman

We need you. We need you, and me, and our entire community. Our congregation depends on its membership to fully and completely function. Our morning and evening minyan needs all of us. There are mornings and many evenings where we have not had a minyan. Perhaps you are asking, why is it so important? Simply put, our service is not complete without a minimum of ten Jews above the age of B'nai Mitzvah.

The source for the requirement of minyan is recorded in the Talmud. The word minyan itself comes from the Hebrew root maneh meaning to count or to number. The word is related to the Aramaic word mene, numbered, appearing in the writing on the wall in the book of Daniel.

It was the firm belief of the sages that wherever ten Israelites are assembled, either for worship or for the study of the Law, the Divine Presence dwells among them. In rabbinical literature, those who meet for study or prayer in smaller groups, even one who meditates or prays alone, are to be praised. However, the stress is put upon the merits and sacredness of the minyan of ten. The codifiers, such as Maimonides, his annotators, and Rabbi Joseph Karo, author of the Shulchan Aruch, have together given strength to this sentiment, and have thus, for more than a thousand years, made the daily attendance at public worship, morning and evening, to be conducted with a quorum of ten.

Without a minyan, we cannot offer the formal call to prayer, Barchu. Without a minyan we cannot recite the Amidah out loud, the central prayer where we offer various blessings and petitions before God. And without a minyan, we cannot recite a version of Kaddish including Mourner's Kaddish. For a mourner to come to the synagogue to seek comfort in community and not be able to recite the central prayer during one's mourning period can be devastating. It is incumbent upon each of us to do our part.

We are a large congregation, and the ask is simple but, the reward is great. By helping us achieve a minyan, you will be able to make a difference for someone else. Please give us one morning or one evening a month. If each of our members were to give us that time, our minyan would be much more secure. 12 days out of 365 is what we are asking. A congregation depends on its members to volunteer and sustain life. Please help us.

Shalom Chaverim,

While Spring is almost upon us, I suspect that winter is not yet ready to let go of its cold grip on us (as I am writing the wind chill is below zero). That is more reason to join in on the many events that CBS has to offer this month, and to experience the warmth of our community.

As many of you know, one of my pastimes is to play baseball, and the highlight of my baseball year is to play a week of baseball every January in Florida as part of a Minnesota Twins Fantasy Camp. A large group of 50 and 60 somethings don a Twins uniform and pretend to be big league players while being coached by former major league players. I was so pumped, the first game at camp, starting at second base being coached by two Twins icons, Frank Viola and Jeff Reardon. It's the top of the second and the first batter up for the opposing team hits a single. His 60-year-old brother who is a camp rookie is up next, takes one swing and drops. At first we thought he had stumbled, but this in fact became our worst nightmare. Jamie was clinically dead while his brother stood 90 feet away on first base. Two of my teammates (both MDs, one a cardiologist) rushed out and started working on him. One of the grounds crew who saw what was happening rushed over to help (it turns out he was an EMT). Additionally, one of the Twin's trainers was at our field and she had a portable AED (portable defibrillator). Jamie was clinically dead for almost six minutes when the fire department arrived. We were all traumatized and feeling helpless by what was happening. Mark, Jamie's brother, was inconsolable. With the quick response by these four individuals (keeping his heart beating) the fire department EMTs were able to bring Jamie back. I found myself caught between two roles- both a traumatized teammate (the camaraderie is such at camp that we are all teammates) and the pull to be a caregiver as I had worked for 17 years with traumatized children. After the ambulance pulled away, I met with my teammates and the coaches to explain the importance of expressing our emotions and not isolate from each other or our friends and loved ones. Sometimes our instinct is to withdraw and shutdown during a crisis when in fact connection is essential to recovery in the aftermath of an emotional trauma. 'There but for the grace of God go I' had never been more poignant in my life than in that moment on January 9th, 2023, 10:03 AM.

Fast forward three weeks...Jamie survived (the widow maker heart attack), has been discharged from the hospital and is expected to make a full recovery. The doctors reported that he was a ticking time bomb and that he survived only because his heart gave out at that moment in time with the right people in place. Was this luck, coincidence, Divine intervention? We will never know for sure. But what we do know is that the whole is much greater than the sum of its parts. Four people who hardly knew each other saved the life of a fifth whom they did not know. Just imagine all the possibilities of what a thousand plus families who are part of one community can do for each other...

By the way, my team won the camp championship this year, but the thrill of playing in Twins stadium and winning paled compared to the life lesson I experienced. I hope to see you around this month.

L'Shalom,

Bob

CANTOR'S NOTES

Cantor Stoehr

“Funny you should ask, she’s doing great”.

Even if you didn’t ask, grandparents can only imagine you, and the rest of the world, want to know how their grandchild is doing. (Oh by the way, Liv Hazel is doing wonderfully). Isn’t that the perspective of any grandparent? My kids, they’re fine, whatever, but my grandchild, ohhh that’s newsworthy.

Jonathan Shmidt Chapman, this past year was leading a wonderful series of programs for the Jewish Grandparents Network about “Bringing to Life”... Chanukah, High Holidays, as well as your Passover Seder, etc. They were huge hits, garnering hundreds of people each a lesson.

Well, just like your grandchild isn’t as special as my grandchild, I am now going to challenge Jonathan’s success by offering a grandparent series of my own.

These classes will begin on Wednesday, March 8th at 10:30 AM, for the four weeks prior to Pesach. (Yes, I know you’re busy then, but if you had to be with your grandchild you’d find a way to break free).

“The JOY of Grand-parenting”. Yes, most will kibbitz that being a grandparent brings so much nachas that they wish they had had them first. Love them and then leave them back home with their own parents.

What I am going to try and explore are the challenges of grand-parenting in 2023. How do we balance being available but not too smothering? How do we instruct a child, as we did their parents, but not get in the way of the parents’ philosophy of raising their child, (should it conflict with the way they were brought up)? What if the child you raised is intermarried and that new dynamic is new to you and your lessons about your faith to the children? OY! Also where is this “club” everyone mentions? “Welcome to the Club”! Are there dues? Is there a real place I can go to for pointers and soft walls to hit my head against?

“Ton Nit Gei Shlug Dein Kop Ohn Vant” – Before you “go hitting your head on the wall”, come to my classes. Let’s see what we can unearth while sharing our Oys and celebrate our Joys of being grandparents.

Did you teach that one Jonathan Shmidt Chapman? 😊

2:00 pm matinee performance of Indecent, a deeply moving play with music, inspired by the true events surrounding the controversial 1923 Broadway debut of Sholem Asch’s God of Vengeance — a play seen by some as a seminal work of Jewish culture and by others as an act of traitorous libel. Created by Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Paula Vogel, Indecent charts the history of an incendiary drama and the path of the artists who risked their careers and lives to perform it.

As the Youth Director, I never know if I should write something inspirational, something funny, or just whatever is on my mind. Maybe I will try to conquer all three this month!

Now that we are in the Hebrew month of Adar, it's time to be happy! Mishenichnas Adar Marbim B'simcha our sages tell us, when the month of Adar arrives, we increase our joy! And why shouldn't we; warmer weather is on the way, Purim & Pesach are soon, and we should always be grateful each morning. I know that seeing our families with young children regulars, our CBS USY teens, and everyone in between brings me great joy. Now that my own children are regular participants in Religious School and Youth Group, my joy has definitely increased!

Now for something funny...what was Queen Esther's gown made of? Poly-Esther!

I look forward to the month of March...I mean Adar...as we have so much in store for everyone at CBS. Whether it's a Shabbat dinner, a Thursday Lounge Night, or a holiday celebration, I look forward to being here with you and your family to make it a great experience!

J"OY" of Grandparenting

People say becoming a grandparent is the best thing since sliced pumpkin. Maybe so, but with the pleasures come some tensions about grandparent boundaries and interfaith celebrations (if applicable), as well as balancing the Shabbat and Holiday traditions of your home and the parenting modeling which is happening in their home. Stay up late and have ice cream? Sure! Uh-oh!

Let's share and study together.

SISTERHOOD

Jackie Zelkowitz

Sisterhood had a great February. We began with our Sisterhood Shabbat. It was so wonderful to see so many people in person for a warm and special service followed by a wonderful Shabbat dinner. Eva Footlik and Claudy Thompson did a fantastic job of organizing the service, coordinating all of our participating members and putting together the dinner. I cannot thank them and Jody Sigal, our Sisterhood Education VP, enough. Of course, thank you to all of the women of Sisterhood who participated in the service and to everyone that joined us for dinner. It was a special evening because of all of you.

In February, we watched via Zoom, with other WLCJ Sisterhood Affiliates, comedian and Jewish Zodiac® creator, Seth Front, who talked to us about the history of the delicatessen across four generations of Jews in America. We enjoyed a delicious deli dinner to go with his Zoom presentation. Thank you to Debbie Hamilton for organizing this evening for us.

Ellen Grossman, Sara Weinstein and Andy Widen organized our Jan Blum Memorial Game event. The members had a great time connecting while playing classic table games of Mah Jong, Canasta and Bridge. Thank you to Ellen, Sara and Andy!

Edwards Florist of Northbrook was so popular last year we asked them to come back on Thursday, March 16th to help us decorate floral arrangements for our Shabbat tables. This event is offered both in person and via Zoom. If you wish to attend online you will be able to pick up the flowers directly from Edwards Florist and participate from the comfort of your home. We hope that you will join us for a great night out. Register at <https://tinyurl.com/SisterhoodFlowerArranging2023>

On Sunday, March 19th at 10:30 AM, Sisterhood, Men's Club, Membership, and Social Action will help Maot Chitim of Greater Chicago pack Pesach boxes. We will be packing boxes at 1610 Deerfield Drive in Highland Park (formerly Toys"R"Us). We really could use your help to show strong community support from CBS. Register at <https://calendly.com/jstoliar/packing-passover-food-delivery-2023-bsn>

Finally, we could use some help with Passover Kiddushim baking. Robin Bright has, again, generously offered to help us lead the baking which will take place from Tuesday, March 21st through Thursday, March 23rd. Register at <https://tinyurl.com/SisterhoodPesachKiddushim>

I look forward to seeing you at our events.

MEN'S CLUB

Steve Lessman

Dr. Andrew Wagner

In 1973, the Congregation Beth Shalom Men's Club honored our first Kavod Award honoree, David Shapiro^{z"l}. In 2023, we are keeping this tradition alive with our 50th honoree of the Kavod Award. We are privileged to announce that the 50th honoree of the Kavod Award is...

NORMAN PADNOS!

Norm grew up in the Chicagoland area. His family was affiliated with the Conservative movement at West Suburban Temple Har Zion. Norman is a graduate of IIT/Chicago Kent College of Law with a Juris Doctorate and is in private practice, when not volunteering on behalf of his synagogue. Norm and Darlene have been married since June 28, 1967 and lived for a short while in Skokie, then in Nilens, and now in Glenview.

Norm is very devoted to Conservative Judaism. Before joining CBS in 2010, he served Northwest Suburban Jewish Congregation as its President for multiple terms with years of active involvement in many other capacities. He is especially proud to have served the Midwest Region, USCJ as President, Financial Secretary and Youth Commission Chairman. He previously served on the boards of the Jewish National Fund Illinois Region and the Community Foundation for Jewish Education. He is a Hadassah Associate and a member of the Prime Minister's Club for State of Israel Bonds. Norm was involved in their local community as a member of the Board of Education of the East Maine School District #63 for fourteen years serving as President, Vice President, Chairman of the Buildings & Grounds Committee, and Chairman of the Negotiations Committee.

Darlene and Norman first visited Israel in 1984 and have made over 35 trips since then. They were thrilled to serve as co-leaders of four synagogue missions to Israel. It is their passion to encourage family and friends to travel to Israel.

Their greatest inspiration and nachas come from their family. Mitchell and his wife, Sherri, have become active CBS members. Their son, Ethan, and his wife, Alexa, served in the IDF as lone soldiers and now make their home in Jerusalem. Their other son, Benjamin, graduated from DePaul University after spending his gap year in Israel on Nativ. Billy and his wife, Shari Back, make their home in Pittsburgh and the family is affiliated with Temple Sinai. Their children, Elana and Ari, are both students of musical theatre.

Norm Padnos truly believes that his synagogue affiliation and active participation have provided the most positive influence for their family's Jewish identity. It has strengthened their love and support for the State of Israel, encouraged greater ritual observance, and developed leadership skills.

As a member of Congregation Beth Shalom, Norm has served on the Congregation Board of Trustees, continues to sit on the Board of the CBS Men's Club, and is always helping out in the kitchen when he is in town.

We give a hearty Mazel Tov to Norm, Darlene, and the entire Padnos family on Norm's honor of receiving the CBS Men's Club Kavod Award on its 50th year anniversary. Please join us on Saturday, April 15th as we honor Norm and his family at Men's Club Shabbat.

Tracy Safron Suggests

Code Name Sapphire is Pam Jenoff's new historical novel. The enthralling plot begins in 1942 and revolves around three young women who risk their lives to help others. Micheline directs the Sapphire Line, a busy Belgian segment of an underground resistance group that leads downed British airmen across Belgium and occupied France to freedom. Her brother Matteo is also an integral part of the group.

As a Jewish artist living in Berlin, Hannah and her partner Isaac waged their own war against the Nazis. Hannah drew popular anti-fascist cartoons using a pseudonym and Isaac printed and distributed the underground newspapers they appeared in. After Isaac is killed for his resistance activities, Hannah flees on a ship to Cuba. Tragically her boat is turned away from Havana Harbor, but Belgium agrees to accept those passengers with local relatives. Hannah is saved by her dear cousin Lily who welcomes Hannah into the beautiful home she shares with her husband and son. Lily is ignorant of Hannah's former activities, but Hannah knows that her presence is a serious threat to her cousin's family. A chance meeting with Matteo leads Hannah to Micheline and the women reach an agreement. Micheline will help Hannah escape if she initially works for the Sapphire Line. Lily is shocked when she sees Matteo, the true love she left behind, with Hannah. She is also angry when she learns of Hannah's dangerous past and the risky work she is doing for Micheline's group. Hannah steals Lily's identification card to use as cover when delivering messages for the Sapphire Line. When Hannah loses the card, she knows the consequences could be devastating for Lily and her family. Would Hannah be able to rescue them if needed? Shockingly, as the Sapphire Line's success quickly plummets, Micheline is convinced there is a betrayer at the highest level of her group.

Code Name Sapphire's fascinating characters and thrilling plot are what make this novel a true gem.

HEARING THE PAST. LISTENING FOR OUR FUTURE.

Violins of Hope hosted by JCC Chicago and other partner organizations is coming to Chicagoland and surrounding areas across Illinois from April through September 2023. The collection of 70 string instruments played by Jewish musicians before and during the Holocaust have been painstakingly restored and are now coming to our area for cultural exhibitions, performances, and community education with a message of hope, resistance, resilience, and unity.

On Thursday, April 13th Beth Shalom will be hosting one such instrument and we will hear of its story and listen to its beautiful sound during a brief pause before Yizkor, on the last day of Pesach services.

Israeli violinmakers, Amnon and Avshalom Weinstein, have spent the last 20 years collecting and repairing 70 Holocaust-era violins and other stringed instruments from around the world, some with the Star of David on the back and others with names and dates inscribed in the instrument. Together they have lovingly located and restored the violins to reclaim their lost heritage, give voice to the victims and reinforce essential messages of hope, harmony, and humanity.

This image, on the left, The Buried Violin, is one such instrument. It was miraculously buried in the snow, traveled then to Palestine, then to Switzerland, Italy and returned to Israel.

A complete concert experience, with many of the violins, will take place on July 30th, 2023, location TBD. Cantor Stoehr has been bestowed the honor of producing this Violins of Hope concert of Jewish and classical music as a fundraising event to support future educational and musical programming featuring these precious instruments. He will be joined in the program by local Cantors who also have a distinct familial connection to the Shoah.

Violins of Hope is not only a memorial to a lost culture and people, it is also an educational act that reaches people of all ages and faiths.

2023 FJMC Midwest Region Youth and Man of the Year Reception Honoring Paige Star and Neil Rosengard

Sunday, March 26, 2023 at 3:00 pm
Congregation Beth Judea
5304 RFD, Long Grove, IL 60047

Paige Star is a senior at Glenbrook North High School. She plays varsity lacrosse and is active in student government and relay for life. She is also on the Paws for Patrick junior board. Paige is a devoted dancer and has participated in dance company or dance classes every year since she was 2 years old.

Paige has been very active in USY for 5 years. She is currently Regional Membership Kadima Vice President for the CHUSY region. She was President of CBS USY last year and led our group to win Chapter of the Year. Prior to that, she was the CBS Membership Kadima Vice President and the Freshman Representative. In her spare time, Paige likes to hang out with friends and family and take her dog Charlie on walks.

Neil Rosengard grew up at Congregation Beth Shalom, celebrated his Bar Mitzvah at CBS in 1986, joined the Men's Club as an adult, and promptly became an active Executive Board Member. He attended Glenbrook South High School and the University of Kansas. After college, he worked for five years at the Mercantile Exchange where his father Larry worked and owned a successful Brokerage business for many years. Neil then found his passion for working in Sales and Special Events Production, which he has done now for over 30 years, serving the last ten years as Director of Logistics for his company.

Neil's family includes his wife Robyn; 20 year old son Logan, a junior at the University of Kansas; and 17 year old daughter Madison, a senior at Glenbrook North.

Please join us in honoring Paige and Neil as they are recognized by the FJMC!

Please make your reception reservations and please consider placing an ad honoring Paige and/or Neil at <http://midwestregionfjmc.myshopify.com/>

CBS Memorial Plaques

If you wish to honor the memory of a dear one, a most fitting, traditional and dignified remembrance is through a Memorial Plaque.

Each memorial plaque, bearing the name and yearzeit date, is mounted on the tablet in the Moseson Alcove or Feather Beit Midrash. It is lit on the Shabbat of the week of the yearzeit, on the day of the yearzeit and on the four festivals during the year when Yizkor is recited.

Contact Maria Catezone by phone at 847-498-4100 x26 or email MCatezone@BethShalomNB.org for information or to order a plaque.

The following families have dedicated a memorial plaque in memory of their loved ones.
