Come find out what this trip is all about with Rabbi David Chapman and Leann Blue.

Because of the difficult nature of the subjects we will be discussing and viewing, this trip is most appropriate for adults and families with older teens but not younger than Bar/Bat Mitzvah age.

This is a perfect Spring Break alternative.

What past participants are saying...

"It was a life-changing journey. I think about my experiences on this trip constantly. I am so glad that I went."

"This trip was excellent beyond words. It was truly educational, inspiring and tragic all at the same time. And now to see how so much has changed but yet so much remains the same..."

"An absolute must! This journey will expand your thinking, engage your heart, and compel you to keep uncovering untold history. A timely introspective for tikkun olam and the power of transforming the future."
