Welcome to Congregation Beth Shalom!

We seek to enrich the lives of our congregation through ever-evolving ideals of observance, life-long learning, and acts of kindness from this generation to the next. We are committed to meeting the spiritual, educational and social needs of our members through the practice of Conservative Judaism in an all-inclusive manner. We seek to encourage involvement and create a sense of belonging by serving our community, the Jewish people, and the State of Israel.

We hope you enjoy worshiping with us. Following services, please join us for kiddush luncheon and introduce yourself so we may personally greet you.

Senior Rabbi Aaron Melman • Senior Cantor Steven Stoehr • Rabbi David Chapman
Sue Lampert, President • Rabbi Emeritus Carl Wolkin z'l

If you are interested in being a part of our community, please contact Michael Garlin, Executive Director.

This Week's Parashah

Following the episode with the golden calf, God directs Moses to carve a new set of tablets, upon which God will inscribe the words written on the now shattered tablets. God recites His divine attributes, familiar to us as the prayer: "Ado'nai, Ado'nai, Eil Rachum v'Chanun..." God then renews the Covenant with the Israelites, expressing God's requirements for the covenant.

Today's Haftarah

The Haftarah is part of the doom prophecy, against Gog of the land of Magog. The prophecy predicts the horrific punishment of Israel's enemies and the subsequent repurification of the land. On this special Shabbat of Chol HaMoed Sukkot, we read a chapter from the book of Ecclesiastes (Kohelet), narrated by a nameless person who calls himself a "Teacher," and identifies himself as the current king of Israel and a son of King David. The Teacher opens with the exclamation, "Vanity of vanities . . . ! All is vanity" (1:2). He laments that everything in life is endless and meaningless - especially human toil and the cycles of nature - for nothing is ever truly new on earth. As the wisest man in Jerusalem, the Teacher feels he is cursed with the unhappy task of discerning wisdom, for he has seen "all the deeds that are done under the sun" (1:14). In a mixture of prose and verse, the Teacher compiles his studies, hypotheses, and proverbs regarding wisdom.

Congregational Gifts

B'nai Mitzvah receive gifts from the congregation, Sisterhood, Men's Club, JUF, the Youth Commission and Rochelle Zell Jewish High School.

Gifts presented to those celebrating aufrufs and babynamings are provided by the Zaransky Family Ticktin Jewish Community Memorial Fund.

Synagogue Etiquette

In keeping with the spirit of Shabbat and to respect your fellow worshipers, please refrain from taking photographs, texting and writing. If you must be accessible, please set your phone on silent. Please do not use your cell phone anywhere inside the building.

If you have any questions, please see one of our volunteer Shabbat Ambassadors.

We invite you to visit www.BethShalomNB.org for more information about Beth Shalom and our many events, classes and programs happening throughout the year! All CBS religious services are live streamed.

Thought to Ponder:

Have you ever found joy
through being vulnerable?
